Day 3

2018-04-29

Welcome

Welcome to the third day of BOI 2018. We hope you had a great time during the first competition day yesterday and are ready to attack today's problems with the same ferocity! After today's competition you will visit the The Swedish Museum of Natural History which has many exhibitions we think you will find interesting.

Yesterday's Surprise Prize

Yesterday Surprise Prize jointly goes to the Danish and Icelandic teams, who were playing a Swedish version of Cards Against Humanity. Their language understanding gets a solid D-, but their enthusiasm and dedication to blend in with the natives makes them worthy of this prize. Contact someone in the host team to receive the prize, your very own eternal fame and glory.
